

Meet Wayne and Laura

Wayne is an author, mentor, professional speaker, and community leader in Chattanooga. He was born in Albany, GA and is a 30-year US Air Force veteran.

Wayne has a Bachelor of Science and a Bachelor of Biblical Studies degree. He is the author of “Listen – Wisdom and Wit for the Next Generation”.

Laura is an author, speaker, and workshop facilitator. She is the owner of the Serious Writers’ Accountability Training (S.W.A.T.)

Camp where she helps aspiring authors create literary legacies and unleash their inner superhero through writing. She created Wells of Truth Peer-Based Bible Coaching Group, where she teaches students how to study the Bible by using diverse study techniques. Laura is a native of Toledo, Ohio.

Together, they are the authors of “51 ½ Shades of Brown, The Not-So Perfect Tales of a Picture-Perfect Marriage”. Wayne and Laura have three children and two grandchildren, and they enjoy planning “Pop-Pop & Nanna Surprise Adventures” for their granddaughters.
