Michelle's Bio

Michelle joined the finance team in January 2018. She has a bachelors in Christian Ministry with an emphasis on Financial Counseling from Calvary Bible College in Kansas City. Michelle previously served for four plus years as the treasurer of Cedar Heights Baptist Church in Iowa before God called her husband, Brent, to be the manager of the local Moody station, WMBW.

Brent's Bio

Brent is a 1997 graduate of Calvary Bible College whose passion is to reach others with the gospel of Christ and encourage them in their faith. Brent has served on air and provided production services for Christian radio stations across the country. Recognized by his peers, Brent was a finalist for Christian Music Broadcasters National Air Personality of the Year in 2011. When he's not at the office you'll find Brent playing softball or riding bikes with his family, enjoying board games with his wife Michelle, or helping with disaster relief through his local church.

Michelle and Brent have three teenagers which keep them busy attending school events and cheering in the stands. When she has time Michelle enjoys scrapbooking, card making, cooking, piano, and being able to be outdoors. She also enjoys helping people with their tax situation and has 17 plus years in tax preparation for clients.
