

Pastor Carlos Williams

Carlos Williams is a native of Shelby County, Alabama. He and his wife, Joannie are the parents of 2 sons: Corbin and Kenan. Pastor Carlos has served as the Senior pastor of Orchard Knob Missionary Baptist Church since August 2013. He has been in the preaching ministry for 24 years and the pastoral ministry for 20 years. His philosophy of ministry is to preach and teach the word of God with accuracy, clarity, and integrity by the power of God to the Glory of God.

Pastor Carlos attended Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia for three-and-half years but furthered his studies at the Birmingham-Easonian Baptist Bible College in Birmingham where he received a Bachelor's degree in Theology and Pastoral Ministry. He also holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Religion and Master's degree in Theological Studies from Faith International University and Seminary in Tacoma, Washington. He is a second year student at Virginia University of Lynchburg, Virginia pursuing a Doctorate degree in ministry.

Pastor Carlos is truly an asset to the body of Christ in Chattanooga. He continues to build brother and sisterly relationships inside and outside of his own congregation. He is famous for his unselfish spirit and often says of other's work, "A win for your church is a win for Orchard Knob!"
